

Oh, Hordey,
How you were loved.
Your plush velvet
And grabbable tum
Served you well.
Patient recipient
Of hugs and squeezes,
Snot and dribble;
Maybe even secrets.
Who can tell.
I found you
And my heart skipped a beat
You're twenty six
And still look like a yearling.