

LOCKDOWN SKY; I WANDERED LONELY AS A CLOUD

*I wandered aimless to and fro
Aimless-destination mattered not
Just exercise- just stay fit
Like a caged animal back and forth.*

*I wandered lonely just me
Passing others like ships in the night
Like a leper- 'stay away'
'keep your distance' I pleaded to myself.*

*I wandered lonely as a cloud
In the hands of the gods floating
No more control, no choice, driven
The wind of change lifted me.*

*I floated light, free of duties
Looking closely, seeing clearly
Hidden treasures breaking through
Inspired again to life in all its glories.*
