

She would have had a cat
(I'm sure she had a cat!)
To catch a mouse or rat or Sit upon her lap)
Yes she would have had a cat!
I'm sure she had a cat.....

Mary had a little cat; she lived close by the sea she gathered fossils day by day to earn her cup of tea.....
She lived so very long ago but we have not forgot the creatures that she found for us
now live upon this spot.

The other things that Mary had, her world her life time her time now lie in cases for us to dust and make up silly rhymes!
